Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

Income Taxes

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, the Agency is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Agency and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold; the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold. Management believes that it has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of December 31, 2017, the Agency does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary.

The Agency has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. The exemptions are subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that the Agency continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. The Agency may periodically receive unrelated business income (such as sublease rental income) requiring the Agency to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Under such conditions, the Agency calculates, accrues and remits the applicable taxes.

Pro Bono Program

The Animal Legal Defense Fund's Pro Bono Program is the nation's largest pro bono network for animal protection. The program partners with attorneys and pro bono coordinators across the United States to expand the practice of animal law. Collectively, legal professionals donate thousands of hours to the Animal Legal Defense Fund's cases annually. The donated value of services for 2017, included in the total expenses of the Pro Bono Program, was $3,660,085. The program also works to increase the understanding of animal law in the legal community by educating professionals at law firm and bar association events and keeping volunteers engaged and up-to-date on the latest developments in the field.

Animal Law Program

The Animal Legal Defense Fund's Animal Law Program works closely with law students and law professionals to advance the emerging field of animal law. Working to expand animal law into the curriculum of every law school in the country, the Animal Law Program collaborates with students, faculty, and school administrations to facilitate the development of animal law courses and assists students in forming Animal Legal Defense Fund Student Chapters.

As part of the Animal Legal Defense Fund's Animal Law Program, the organization makes grants available to various organizations, law centers, individuals, and Animal Legal Defense Fund Student Chapters at law schools across the country to support the efforts to inform, educate, and take action for animal protection laws. The Animal Legal Defense Fund grants are critical to encouraging the next generation of animal lawyers. Grants and scholarships funded during the year ending December 31, 2017 included various donations to law schools, organizations, and individuals.

Criminal Justice Program

The Animal Legal Defense Fund's Criminal Justice Program is staffed by attorneys, including former prosecutors, with expertise in animal protection. Criminal Justice Program attorneys provide free legal assistance and trainings to prosecutors and law enforcement agencies to ensure that state criminal anti-cruelty statutes are vigorously enforced and that those convicted of animal cruelty and neglect receive appropriate sentences. They work with state legislators to enact felony anti-cruelty statutes in states that do not yet have them and to upgrade existing laws in states that do. The Criminal Justice Program also maintains a nationwide database of animal cruelty cases and current and model animal protection laws available to prosecutors, legislators, and researchers.

Other Legal Programs

The Animal Legal Defense Fund's other legal programs include Legislative Affairs. Efforts focus on working at local levels to advance legislation that would promote or protect the lives and interests of animals or to oppose legislation that would be detrimental to animals' well-being. The program works closely with the Animal Legal Defense Fund's other programs to identify opportunities to create model legislation that addresses strategic legal issues in the areas of civil and criminal law, and monitor legislation that impacts animals at the federal, state, and local levels.

Public Education

Public education informs the public of, and facilitates support for, the organization's mission in protecting the lives and advancing the interests of animals through the legal system.
