2021 Animal Law Student Scholars Workshop

Animals and Natural Disasters
The Student Scholars’ Workshop is a year-long project that will engage law students in using scholarship to develop innovative legal solutions to animal protection problems.

- Write a substantial academic paper
- Receive expert animal law and legal writing faculty mentors & coaches
- Publish in a special collection
- Present at 2022 Student Convention
Student Scholars’ Workshop participants will explore the issue of the limited legal protections available for farmed animals in natural and weather-related disasters and craft innovative legal solutions for ensuring that the welfare of farmed animals in such disasters.
Proposals due November 8, 2021. Selected participants will be notified by November 19, 2021.

Research & Writing Seminar: Mid-January 2022

Student Scholars’ Workshop: April 1, 2022

2022 Student Convention: October 2022. Papers will be published in conjunction with Speak Out for Farmed Animals Month 2022.
Eligibility & Application Instructions

- 2L, 3L, 4L, LL.M. law students
- Proposal (<500 words)
  - Name, Law school, Graduation date
  - Working title
  - Brief description of thesis and main points
- Submit to Priscilla Rader Culp: prader@aldf.org
- Submissions due November 8, 2021
Questions?

Priscilla Rader Culp
prader@aldf.org

Stacey Gordon Sterling
sgordonsterling@aldf.org
Thank you!

We can’t do this without you